General Guidelines
The wiki page create by each group must contain the following elements. For a detailed description of each requirement, see the attached guidelines page or visit http://wiki.justinboyd.net.

Content:
From a content perspective, this project can go in many directions. What is important however is that the final wiki page demonstrates that each student conducted researched, and synthesized the research through the lens of the novel Sammy & Juliana in Hollywood.

The following criteria are intentionally general in order to give each group the freedom to research, present and explore their topic as desired.

Writing:
The writing for this project should be professional. I expect that you will adhere to professional language both in word choice, tone and structure. Although this writing is on a wiki, it is a formal piece of writing.
